SAMPARC Social Action For Manpower Creation Annual Report 2015-2016

Honorable President, Dr.Lalit Chokhani, and Honorable Secretary Mr.Amitkumar Banerjee and Members of SAMPARC Governing Council take the pleasure to present SAMPARC Annual Report for the year 2015-16.

Firstly we would like to thank to our all Partners, well-wishers, sponsors, donors and volunteers for their over whelming support which made us possible to do activities for orphan, poor and needy children and to extend rural development activities for the poor rural communities.

SAMPARC is a non-profit making registered Society and Trust working since 26 years for education, care, protection, and rehabilitation of orphan, needy and poor children. This year children have shown excellent progress in education, sports and extracurricular activities. This achievement of children is accomplished because of the continuous support and help from the donors which has helped us to provide special education support to the children in computer, general knowledge, Maths, reasoning, Spoken English, sports, music and dance along with school curriculum for the holistic development of the children. Also with the support of donors SAMPARC has organized exposure visits for the children to Science Park, planetarium, museums to provide opportunity to the students to enhance their learning with fun and enjoyment.

SAMPARC Projects– five children's homes for orphans are run in the State of Maharashtra, one children's home in the state of West Bengal and another in Rajasthan. The Gujarat children's home is now not functioning because earthquake victim children are grown up and are now rehabilitated and further no new children were admitted. SAMPARC Bhambarde School is in Mulshi Taluka, Maharashtra, catering education need of tribal children. The centre is working for Katkari tribals in Muslhi Taluka for education of their children, household development and to give them the support to get facilities from Government. The main Vocational training Centre is run in Malvali near Lonavla, Maharashtra and another centre in Mirzapur, Uttar Pradesh. The Community Education support is provided to the socially and economically week children- 3 programs for children's education is run in Maharashtra, 2 in Rajasthan and 6 in West Bengal. SAMPARC is running Medical Support program in Maval Taluka in Maharashtra. Special education support program in Maval and Mulshi Taluka covered under Nanhi Kali program in district Pune, Maharashtra. Women's empowerment program for 6000 women is in progress in Maval Taluka, Dist.Pune, through income generation training program SAMPARC is involved with women groups. SAMPARC is also working for Child counseling and Counselling for victim women against domestic violence and capacity building for personnel working for child care in institutes in Maharashtra.

This year 83 children – 40 children from SAMPARC Children's Home and 43 children from SAMPARC Grameen Vidya Vikas Kendra, School and Hostel, Bhambarde have appeared for 10th std SSC Board exam. Only 4 children were unable to pass the final exam from children's home in 1 subject, they have reappeared for the same and all of them have passed taken up admission in 11th std.
